Alice in Zombieland

The mad hatter was patient zero Gsus4 F7sus2 Csus4 F7sus4
No one knew at first
But Alice knew something was wrong
When the March Hare growled a curse (he said)

Your head is filled with sweet, delicious C7 C5
Cleverness, so bright Csus2 F7sus4
Deary me, you're late for tea! C7 C5
Won't you stay for a bite? Csus2 F7sus4

The table gathers flies and bees C5-2 Am7
The Red Queen's garden's gone to seed C7 C5
For now there is no time for tea C5-2 Am7
For Alice in Zombieland C7 C5 Gsus4 F7sus2 Csus4 F7sus4

The white rabbit took to chasing dogs Gsus4 F7sus2 Csus4 F7sus4
That chewed on his good leg
For it may be there's no rest for the weary
But here there's no rest for the dead

Now the house of cards is tumbling down C7 C5
Caught in winds of change Csus2 F7sus4
The White Queen sits on a throne of bones C7 C5
Wondering what a difference one day makes Csus2 F7sus4

The Vorpel blade went snicker-snack C5-2 Am7
But no head came galumphing back C7 C5
'Cause the Jabberwock took it for a snack C5-2 Am7
As night fell in Zombieland C7 C5 Gsus4 F7sus2 Csus4 F7sus4

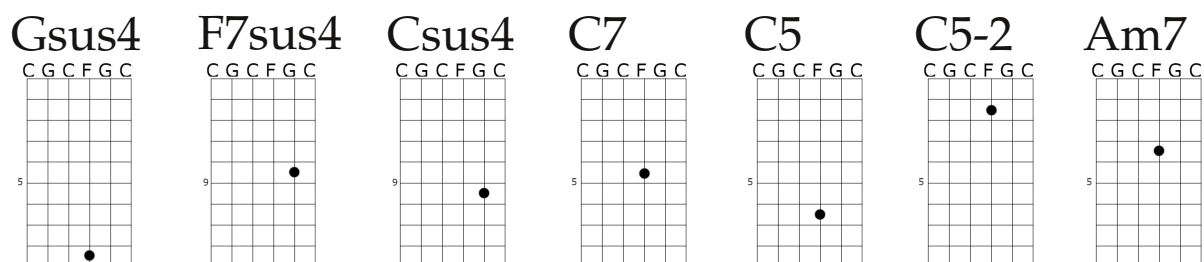

The Dormouse finally has C5 C7 (repeats)
 Something more to say (what does the White Knight say?)
 Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee
 One lump or two
 How do you take your BRAINS.....

C5-2 Am7 C7 C5

For so many who'd lost their minds Gsus4 F7sus2 Csus4 F7sus4
 They made some easy prey
 But a smiling cat said, 'Imagine that,
 You may just win this day

But in the end just remember C7 C5
 Not to lose your head Csus2 F7sus4
 There are fates far worse than death C7 C5
 When you wrestle the restless dead Csus2 F7sus4

Off with your head means something new C5-2 Am7
 Oh what's a poor lost girl to do C7 C5
 But make the undead rue C5-2 Am7
 Sweet Alice in Zombieland C7 C5 Gsus4 F7sus2 Csus4 F7sus4

Arcana - Boundaries - Strength

Big sis here because we all need one
Because self care isn't something you have to do alone
Unclench your jaw let your shoulders drop Lift and drop your eyebrows take a deep breath

Inhale the good shit
Exhale the bullshit
And repeat after me

I am capable - I am enough
I deserve respect - I deserve love
I am beautiful - I am worthy
I am powerful - I have boundaries

Those who don't respect you don't deserve your time
They don't deserve your kindness they don't deserve your mind
Your purpose in this world is to leave it better than when you came
But that doesn't mean you sacrifice the things that keep you sane

Inhale the good shit
Exhale the bullshit
And repeat after me

I am capable - I am enough
I deserve respect - I deserve love
I am beautiful - I am worthy
I am powerful - I have boundaries

Kindness in a cruel world is a miracle, a gift
It takes courage, it takes practice it takes a tiny gift
Of effort and passion but if you're killing your self
To take care of others how will you take care of yourself?

Repeat please
I have a right to say no
I have a right to me time
I owe no one explanation
Or principle compromise

I stand in my power no matter my Hogwarts house
I have every right in the universe
To swear up, stand up, and walk out

Inhale the good shit
Exhale the bullshit
And repeat after me

I am capable - I am enough
I deserve respect - I deserve love
I am beautiful - I am worthy
I am powerful - I have boundaries

Yes you are. Now go grab your day and fuck it up.

Arcana - The Fool

Trickster caught his eye
Now he's down a rabbit hole
Trying to make sense of A world he doesn't know

A starting place, a hiding place
The choice is simple, yet
The fool that follows stands alone
And knows not how to get...

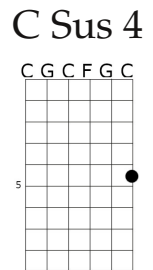

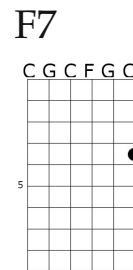

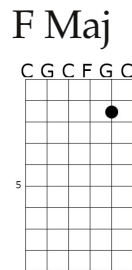

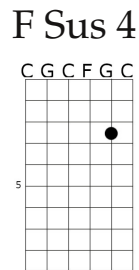

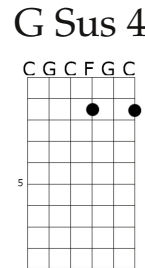

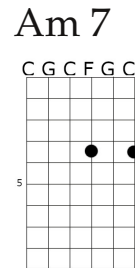

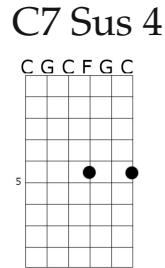

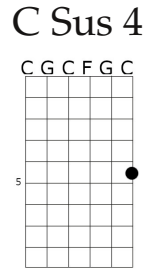

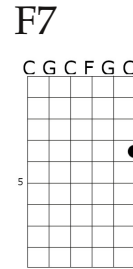

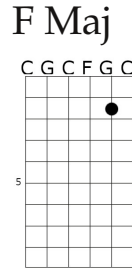

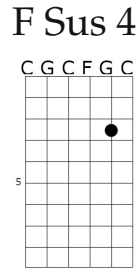

Chorus
Back to the beginning
Time to start again
Tired of treading water
Trying to ride the wind

Too close to see the answer
Forget all you think you know
Follow your feet forward
The Fool must go

Get up off of your laurels
Now's no time to rest
Your ethics and your morals
Will be put to the test

You want to change your life
First you must change your mind
Be ok with being clay
As ye seek so shall ye find

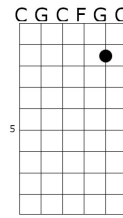

Chorus

Arcana - Justice

Not here to spare your feelings, not here to be saved Em Am
Not here for your saviour complex, so you can make some social grade
All lives matter, really, including black lives
Brown lives, trans lives, missing native women's lives?

White men have been in charge, for a thousand years Em Am
And all it brought was war, oppression, and a trillion tears
Don't care about your opinions, but we do need your help
You wanna show us what, you're here for....welp...

No justice, no peace Em Am
More justice, more peace

We are who we are, and we're here to make it clear Em Am
We're every shape and size and color, we're trans, we're queer
And if that makes you uncomfortable, good, now sit
And ruminate on what you're so afraid of, and chuck that shit

We love we live, we vote, we shine Em Am
And y'all need to stop acting, like that's some kind of crime
Because we're people and we're not going away
And honey this ain't Burger King, you can't have it your way

No justice, no peace Em Am
More justice, more peace

We refuse to live in fear Dm
We get louder when you refuse to hear Am
We have a right to speak, to know that sweet release Dm
We have the right to not be murdered by police E Am G

No justice, no peace Em Am
More justice, more peace

No justice, no peace (We're here) Em Am
More justice, more peace (We're queer)
No justice, no peace (No fear)
No justice, More peace (No fear)

Land of the free, home of the brave Em Am
Yet you put so many, not like you in our graves
You dare to say, others aren't welcome
When we all know, where you came from

The ground you walk upon, is stolen land Em Am
Your ancestors came here, and took it from the hands
Of those who, lives here, thousands of years
You tried to destroy us, but we're still here

More justice, more peace

Women can't walk alone at night, can't live on the ground floor Em
Am
Can't drink their fill in public, even if they do want more Men can't control their urges, and yet they're in charge
How are women responsible, for hypocrisy so large

It's time to take a hard look, at who we really are Em Am
Because we're a star spangled, bicentennial dumpster fire
And I say burn it down, and let the ashes blow
And build up something better, sometimes it hurts to grow

No justice, no peace Em Am
More justice, more peace
No justice, no peace
No justice. More peace...

Callenwood Part 2

Gone is the time when the moon held sway
Our lovers stand together at the dawning of the day
A kiss before they part, but the morning air is frayed
By the sound of certain hounds on the run as they bay

The sound of hoof beats echo o'er the hills
And over come a herd of hounds aiming for a kill
Behind them on a steed as black as his heart
The dreaded mayor of Callen on the way to leave his mark

The couple took off running as morning bells began to peel
The dogs just at her tail and nipping at his heels
They made it to the edge of town, the smithy at his hearth
His hammer beating out a tune as fast as their hearts

Soon they stood surrounded by a herd of gnashing teeth
The townsfolk heard the ruckus and were coming up to see
But soon enough their voices raised, shouting their dismay
Their village was not the place for a girl with a tail

The mayor burst through the crowd, grinning with delight
Something wicked flashed with his eyes as he gloated o'er their plight
Would it be the villagers or would it be the smith
Or would it be the dogs that would tear her limb from limb

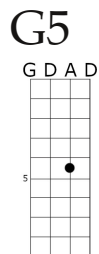

Suddenly someone raced out and kicked aside a hound
Jenna turned with her arms outstretched and fiercely stood her ground
"I won't let you hurt them," her tiny voice did cry
Then the smithy stood beside her and said "neither will I."

The mayor stepped forward, and sneered at both of them
He drew the blade from his cane. "You've sealed your own fate then."
Luna ran up to the child to shield as best she could
When a certain melody did echo from deep with the wood...

(Hamlin's theme variation)

Something ran out toward the crowd from the darkened wood
It rode upon a wolfs back, and as they neared, it stood
A slumped and dark skinned creature with a fiddle and a bow
Played as the wolf ran along the edge of the crowd

Callenwood Part 3

Off the wolf ran and the hounds followed behind
Heeding not their master nor the orders that he cried
He turned to the couple, but the little girl stood fast
He said I'll take you too if you don't let me pass

The smithy took a step and took him by the coat
He said how dare you threaten her
She's only a child, What gives you the right
Besides that little girl seems to have it right

The crowd slowly nodded, and soon became a roar
How dare this slinking coward threaten a little girl
But Jenna begged the smithy not to let them have their way
It isn't necessary, just send the bad man away

A voice quite familiar carried over the din
I think we should all heed the wisdom of Little Jenna Enough blood has been lost, We'll add no more this day
So run, you meowing coward, And never return again

The smithy dropped the mayor who crumpled in a heap
The king picked up the blade as he staggered to his feet
He ran out of the village, fast as any sparrow
He staggered past the Apple tree, headed toward the river's flow

The hounds flew back out of the wood, their canine minds now clear
They'd been taught to hunt evil, and there was just one evil here
The mayor ran all the faster, but no avail his sudden haste
The dogs made good upon their mission, and upon him did they feast

Someone pointed to the wood and all did turn to see A column of the woodfolk walking out for all to see Lead by a man with face so fine as to make the birds sing
Followed by a pair of brown and silver feathered wings

And so stood two people, at silent war for centuries
Eyes so full of questions, but no one dared to speak
Jenna smiled at Hamlin, whose bow was made of willow Reminding her of the dear friend who lived next to her home

Chorus:

Now comes the dawning of the day
(At the edge of Callenwood)
Beware what angered voices say (Old hatred s fade away)
The root of anger is fear
(In the light of the day)
But there's so much you can learn, with open heart and open ear

The king held out his hand, and the man took it with a smile
The king said, "Welcome, Kalebrek. It has been a while."
They walked hand in hand to where the lovers stood King Desmond smiled down and said, "let's do this as we should."

The shepherd boy and the girl with the tail
Kneel in silent supplication
And two Kings hand in hand perform the invocation

Two pairs of hearts are joined at last
Our story ends as we hoped it would
And life could not better be Here in Callenwood

Calvin's Girl

Fireside, whisperin'
On an autumn breeze
Voices singing through the snow
Come along with me

You wear the starlight well
But you long now for the sea
I promise nothing but my hand
Come along with me

You worked your way up to the top
Of all there was to be
You climbed so high but then looked up
There's so much more to see

I promise you no mountains
I hold only one key
And that's to laugh along the way
Come along with me...

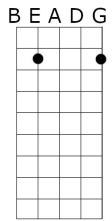

From transmogrification
To Invisibility
To every game of Calvinball
Come along with me

We're off on high adventure
From high up in a tree
Dinosaurs and jet pack wings
Come along, come along with me...

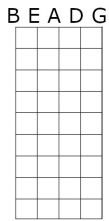

The years pass by like paper planes
You give her hand to me
I promise to take care of her
As you once did for me

You never let your childhood go
And so neither shall we
I see you in your daughter's eyes
Calvin's girl, come along with me...

We all know the lion statues of the library (main riff, see notes)
Protectors of the knowledge held inside
But if you scratch the right one just behind the ear
Blue eyes show you where the secrets lie

Catnyp came to life one night along with all the Pages
Paper dolls with flat and inky smiles
The Pages bring the books to you day and night, two by two But Catnyp tells the mice just what to find...

In the windows you'll see lantern light drifting through the night
For midnight is the busiest of hours
The Fair Folk are calling books of life and death and dreaming
And the love that every blackened heart desires

Catnyp is the search engine, the stone card catalog
And his results come out as mice and rooks
And if you find the right one the mice will tell you stories
Of everyone who's ever held their book.

As Pages fly the stacks hum softly songs long forgot
And to their voices Catnyp always smiles
For when no one is looking, he prowls into their keep
To preen and purr and join their song a while

Slip through the cracks, behind a door or backwards through an archway
And bring along a treat fit for a cat
Mind your manners, and quiet, please and never go into the stacks
Or you might find yourself scolded by a magic marble cat....

Children Of The Flame

Darkness holds me close Am

Companion

I sit and wait beside the only tree for miles Em D (repeats)
The path before me barely visible at night
I wait there patiently alongside
As one by one they all come by Seekers trying to find their way along

I ride the winds on wings of black and heather
I never know where they all go, just where they've been
I have to say it wasn't always like this
But that's a life that I don't miss
I hold the moment for all those who need just one

For I am the Guardian, and I am the Guide C D (repeats)
For all who journey here, I walk beside
I pass along all the things I learned
Cause nobody can know just where the story turns

Then a young man came with heart so heavy
Looking for a way to make it all make sense
I rode the top of the bag he had on
He had the tools he needed all along
He just needed a companion on the way

A girl danced through the misty shade
She liked my voice as I kept her rhythm true
She didn't know just where this road might lead
But she was happy for the company
So I gave her one feather to remember

Yes I'm the Guardian, and I'm the Guide
I keep them safe from where the shadows hide
The choices that they make are on their own
But I'm always there to make sure they don't walk this road alone

Then a flutter of wings caught my attention
A glow of white landed on the darkened road
He looked around and then he smiled at me
He came to sit with me beside my tree
And when I heard the footsteps on the path, I knew

That we are Guardians, and we are the Guides
For all who journey here, we walk beside
We pass along all the things we learned
Cause nobody can know just where the story turns

Yes we are Guardians, and we are Guides
We keep them safe from where the shadows hide
The choices that they make are on their own
But we're always there to make sure no one walks alone Em D x2
And now we know that we'll never be alone C D Em Dx2 Em

Corvus

Jackdaw, magpie, raven, crow
Living in the places where the shadows go
Living in the places where the shadows go

Yeah, I'm a real night-crawler come out in the day
Watching up and down the road for my next meal
Roadkill will do just fine
Or a mouse that the cat couldn't find

Cause I'm a real tough cookie with a story on my back
I gotta certain something and a quip for every quill Hold still, and you just might Catch me on my next flight

Won't you come and join me for a dance, my dear?
And learn a trick or two along the way
Never be afraid to let your voice be heard
We'll dance your fear of flying right away
(What goes up must come down, but getting up there's half the fun)

Living in the places where the shadows go

In a world where anything can be thrown away
I got my pick of the litter
Pick it out, pick it up, take it away
Sweet talk and a squawk in every work I say
Oh brother, won't you come out and play

Murder's not a dirty word where I'm from
I hold space for shadows, spinning yarns in mid air
Here kitty kitty with a few lives to spare
Doesn't mean you wanna take me on for that mouse right there...
(Fuzzball never knew what hit him...)

Living in the places where the shadows go

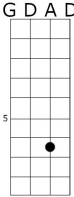

So in the early mornin' when the fog's rollin' in Keep an eye on the treetops, cause if I'm sittin' in You'll know that it's just another night on the town
For a winged scrounger who sure gets around

Won't you come and join me for a dance, my dear?
Never be afraid to let your voice be heard
(Come on up and see me sometime and stay for a squawk...)

Living in the places where the shadows go

The Critters

01-Buttonhole

Buttonhole is the shy one
Some doubt that she exists
But if you leave out lemon peel
She simply can't resist

She rearranges everything
From shells to spoons to stone
And where you'll find the shampoo next
Only Buttonhole knows

The spirit house upon the shelf
Is where she makes her home and if any try to talk to her
She says, "I want to be alone."

02-Dust Bunny

Dust bunny is our Captain
He keeps us all in line
And he always keeps his watch tight
As he is keeper of our Time

He runs us forward backward round
Til every deed is done
Then makes sure we all have a perfect
Seat to watch the fun

He makes us laugh, he makes us growl
He keeps us fit to stalk and howl
And he always keeps the sharpest eye
Beneath his heather cowl

03-Esler

You're lucky if you see young Esler
More than once or twice
She's light of foot with foxie ears
And a nose for every spice

Whenever peppers are hung to dry
It always make her bolder
So never mind when you hear a rattling
In the wooden spoon holder

The frying pan is her pride and joy
Cast iron, perfect for eggs
But don't forget to wash it out
Or she'll throw beans at your head!

04-Fauna

Little Fauna lives for storms
Be they snow or rain
Her axe always keeps her safe
When lightning comes to play

She spins around like a carousel
To a rhythm all her own
Her axe is sharp and jagged
And older than she knows

Static follows her everywhere
As she runs about the house
But her aim is true when scaring off
Every bug and mouse

05-Firrigard, the Christmas Critter

When the Christmas tree comes Firrigard comes to life
He swings about like Tarzan from the ornaments and lights

He reties all the ribbons
Into impossible bows
And he loves to play matchmaker
By moving the Mistletoe

He spices all the cider whether you want it or not
And he nips just a spoonful
Just as long as its hot

06-Magdalen T. Shrout

Back in the coat closet
You'll find Magdalen T. Shrout
And whenever there's a party
That's when she's about

She nicks the gloves folks leave behind
But not just on a whim
She unravels the woven ones
And knits them up again

For Magdalen makes all the clothes
For Dust Bunny and his band
So if you're ever at these parties
Go ahead, give her a 'hand'

07-Orpheus

In the attic you'll find Orpheus the oldest of our band
He's keeper of the stories and the songs of the clan

Keep an eye to the oak out front
For a squirrel of purest white
He runs errands for Orpheus
But no one knows quite why!

At midnight you may hear a voice
Like dust on a gravel road
You may hear your name in a song
You're not sure how you know

08-Pickles

Pickles got left in the fridge one day
He never did that again
But he earned his name and used it well
To our sweet lady's ends

Though the scent of dill does follow him
To table, hall and toaster
Believe me when I tell you
What he does is never kosher

He sings the ice in cups to crack
He whistles cats to pounce
And he's the one who makes the glasses
Not break, but bounce

09-Sparkle

Sparkle lives in the far right cupboard
She's keeper of the tea
So when the kettle's boiling
You know just where she'll be

Never ask what's in your cup
If you're sick or feeling down just know that once you finish it you're sure to come around

For she always brews the tea you need
Black, Green, Sweet, or spice
So no matter which tea you choose
You'll never get the same once twice!

10-Taka

Taka looks like an old librarian
From Victorian Hyde Park
But don't let the bouffant fool you
Those fangs are razor sharp

She loves the wing chimes in the hall
And collects fresh water shells
And our lady has stopped wondering
Why the books reshelve themselves

They all go back in order
Each volume in its place
But if you put one back wrong
She just might eat your face

11-Whizzer

Whizzer lives in the bathroom sink
Not under it, in the drain
He moved in when she replaced the floor
And never moved out again

He blesses all the band-aids
He sleeps with his helmet lit
He tunnels through the garden
To make the seeds all fit

He's brown with dirt and minty fresh He's quick with a pebble, too
So careful of the flowers
Or you'll find one in your shoe

12 - The Trickster Bird & The Wizard

The trickster bird and the wizard
Play music past midnight Jamming with Orpheus
Past the early light

They once lived in the window box
But now in an old guitar
Gathering the traveling tales
Of their clan from near and far

Tracing back the bunny clan
The tree down to the root
And when it's done, every song's been sung
Orpheus passes on his lute

Custom Critters

Apple - Cassandra

Apple is the wild child
A youth of Bunny clan
And there is not a task yet set
That she hasn't tried her hand

Apprentice extraordinaire
A Jane of every trade Master of all she sets herself to She's up for anything!

She knows every story that Orpheus ever told
She sings her own song with a voice
Clear and strong and bold

Beech & Stow - Andrea and Karen

In the organ of the Old North church
A curious pair is housed
In the lowest organ pipes
Where the stops never pull quite out

Beech rewrites the sermons
To speak to every soul
World that hold the mind at ease
The truth is always told

Stow sits in the choir balcony
And adds a special voice Filling in the frequencies
Of her own special choice

Dare - Mia

The youngest of the Bunny clan
Is the feisty little Dare
She's fierce and sweet and light of feet
And lives under the basement stair

The dance floor in the basement
Is her playground most nights
And there you'll likely find her
Twirling In silvery moonlight

She weaves that silver moonlight
Into her braided hair
She uses it to read her books
Back underneath the stairs

Foxipher - Shawna

You may see something moving
In the corner of your eye
At the gift shop of Muir Woods
Right around closing time

For just beyond the treeline
Another market begins to stir
Owned and run by a fierce spirit
By the name of Foxipher

In the shadow of this hallowed wood
She'll haggle any price
Her torchlight burns and sweet voice rings
Far into the night

Jade - Brooke

During the off season
Of the local renaissance Faire
Lives a tiny resident
Who'd made her forever home there

As the brothers are shuttered
She shelters beneath the stage
Weaving locks and knitting socks
With the patience of a Sage

And when the gate reopens
And the vendors wander back
They find tiny gifts waiting for them
In tiny beaded sacks

Pearl - Sheril

Pearl is the fixer
When things go amiss
She mend the socks, and reweaves the frocks
And brings loose seams to bliss

She lives in an old theater
That's been active for centuries
Bringing into the gaslight
All the words and stories

That give a face to the heart of man
But when all are in bed
She makes sure that everyone
Can go out and break a leg!

Pigment - Jela

In the painter's box of trucks
Lives a connoisseur of color
And when our painter hits a block
Pigment helps out like no other

When he falls asleep at last
From anger and frustration
She grabs his beloved paintbrush
To bring out inspiration

She then spins his dreams
Into color creature and form
He then wakes to find a canvas
That's already half done

Shadow - John Ickes

The oak tree in the garden is where Shadow can be found
He distills the finest spirits
And passes them around

Careful of his winter ale
It might have mistletoe
But his whiskey will bless your way
If a journeying you do go

His red Lager brings visions upon a moonless night
So best to savor slowly
Or see red you just might

Surf - D.

Upon the east wind
Flies the song of Surf
Following our dancer
Round the world in her purse

She blesses the shores of travel
And leaves them gifts to take home
The guest room is her safe haven
For all who choose to roam

But now and then she slips into
A pocket left open
She'll tag along both near and far
And returns home with new tokens

Twitch - Jolie

Springtime is the favorite time
For Twitch to be about
She keeps fresh lilac strewn around
From the giant bush out back

Her cloak's a peacock feather
So she can keep the dust at bay
And ne'er a bookmark is ever lost
If Twitch has her say!

She has a love for puppies
So if you bring yours by They're not barking at nothing
So keep a weather eye!

Willow - Jela

Contemporary of Orpheus
Is Willow, apprentice bard
Her songs spark mirth and laughter
On her guitar of crystal shards

A crystal chalice shattered
In the kitchenette one day
And Willow thought it the perfect thing
On which her songs could be played

Her voice is flint and northern wind
Her words chosen wise
So much that many think her
A siren in disguise

Zen - Miles/Andrew

The office at the end of the hall
Holds a singing lawyer's den
And in a dusty book of tax law
That's where you'll find Zen

He always spots a scoundrel
Whenever one comes in
And he'll make sure you spot him too
If you leave out a shot of gin

Our lawyer often finds his books
Open to the perfect page
He needs for the trickiest cases
Opposing counsel in a rage!

Daughter Of The Red

Cast the bones, read the stones
Working for the dead
Nothing too unusual
Just a little taste of red.

Walking with a fearsome sight
Green eyes take me in 10 of 6 does mark the spot
With a perfect hat and a gleeful grin

We're just Envy green and Cinnamon
Moving through the morning
Moving through the morning

Followed by the rabbit
Stalked along the way
Not sure what he's looking for
But he left the white coat home today

He's one of mother's faithful Caught somewhere in between
But I guess that's what happens when You're the new Red Queen (yes, well)

The Doormouse raised his sleepy head Told me to beware
The Jabberwock lives on this block
And he doesn't play fair, well

Envy green and Cinnamon
Moving through the morning
Moving through the morning

Mama loved the sound of her own voice,
She wanted things her way
But sooner or later I always knew
That the Bandersnatch would have his day

Then that day came and she was gone
But no tear of mine was shed
For a green-eyed man, he took my hand
For my hatted love, I wear the red

East or West, up or down
We grow, we shrink, we fall
But a single smile against the dark
Disappears, despite it all

So we make it through as best we can,
Serving queen and kingdom, all
But keep an eye to the setting sun
If a hood and hat should come to call

We're just Envy Green and Cinnamon
Moving through the morning
Moving through the morning

Fortunas Incendium

Beneath a blanket of stars the smith hung the tools of his trade
For to be gone a day he would, water drawn to douse the flame
The flame before him roared to life a voice not unlike his own
Rattling the hardwood rafters and ending with a yawning groan

The Smithy asked, "Who are you? The flame answered "I am Velane,
It means 'The Mighty candle' And I live up to my name.
"I've been here since Winter's night for months
You leave the embers burning
I keep the flame from spreading out, your methods I'm still learning."

Chorus

Hammer fall, ring into the night
A soul awake and burning bright
Working the harvested ore of earth
Great forge fire, with a smile at its heart

"Well, my name is Caliban." "Yes, I've heard someone say that,
But may I ask what is the meaning Of Audentes fortuna luvat?"
Caliban looked to his door and the words carved within it
'It means 'Fortune favors the bold.' It reminds me to push limits."

The smithy regarded the flame whose eyes glowed like molten glass
And smiled and said "so we shall!" he put the bucket down at last
The two worked deep into the night the forge fire steady and hot Caliban brought hammer to bear what he'd make Velane knew not

Chorus

Hammer fall, ring into the night
A soul awake and burning bright
Working the harvested ore of earth

As sunrise gently woke the sky Caliban wiped his brow
Swords stronger than any he'd ever made Horseshoes to make a master proud
Caliban set out extra wood before he went to sleep
To make sure his new friend Velane would have enough to eat

Each challenged the other new ideas to heat the steel
New ways to form, and craft, and spin what earth and fire could yield
And so it went from that day forth the hammer fall would ring
And the laughter of two voices drifted out across the green

Chorus

Hammer fall, ring into the night
A soul awake and burning bright
Working the harvested ore of earth
Great forge fire, with a smile at its heart

Hamlin's Bow

Fading sunlight into night Em7 A7sus
Sometimes I'll hear the cry Em7 A7sus2 G9
A wayward child in this wild Em7 A7sus
Afraid of the dark and the woodland kind Em7 A7sus2 G9

I cannot leave a young heart to grieve G9-2 Gadd9
When I can show the path A7sus4 D9sus4
And lead them on back to the dawn G9-2 Gadd9
Away from false fear's wicked wrath A7sus4 D9sus4

Owls hunt as bluebirds sleep G7 G
From the night you're told to flee D9sus4 G7sus2
We live in places that you fear G7 G
Your place tonight is not here D9sus4 G7sus2

A fiddle crafted from old wood magic Em7 A7sus
No words will I say Em7 A7sus2 G9
Come hear my song and before long Em7 A7sus
Your tears will dry away Em7 A7sus2 G9

Though you, young one, are fed the myths G9-2 Gadd9
Of what lives in the wood A7sus4 D9sus4
For a little while I'll make you smile G9-2 Gadd9
And show you we are good A7sus4 D9sus4

From the night you're told to flee D9sus4 G7sus2
We live in places that you fear G7 G
Your place tonight is not here D9sus4 G7sus2

My refrain will take your pain Em7 A7sus

Though you won't know just why you go Em7 A7sus
To the tune of my fiddle you'll fly Em7 A7sus2 G9

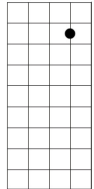

I'll lead your heart from forest dark G9-2 Gadd9

The Hope Of Kings

A shadow moved beyond the walls of stone Am F and into the walls of wood C G
For this night continued a journey Am F
For his favorite good C G

New Moon flight to the old Malus tree Am F
With no fear of the dark C G
Leaving behind affairs of state Am F
To attend one of the heart C G

Tomorrow is promise to no one Dm F C
But beneath the stars, we will race the dawn Am C G
Hearts know no time, nor color or nor fear Dm C G
It carries on, we carry on we race the dawn Am G C

In the shadow of apple leaves Am F
In the place they first met C G
Stood a figure with eagle wings Am F
Of cream and chestnut C G

Time has seen our faces for so long Am F
And time has never betrayed us, how can we be wrong? C G
Said Kalebrek all that we are, in all that we do Am F
In the people we lead, I have something to show you C G

Tomorrow is promise to no one Dm F C
But beneath the stars, we will race the dawn Am C G
Hearts know no time, nor color or nor fear Dm C G
It carries on, we carry on we race the dawn Am G C

Before them on the hill lay a human boy and a wolf girl Am F
Pointing out the stars in their black velvet whirl C G
Their laughter carried cross the dell like water in a river Am F
And Kalebrek knew it wasn't the cold that made him shiver C G

Confusion melted to a familiar ache Am F
Leaving joy and wonder in it's wake C G
Desmond pulled his lover close, and whispered in his ear Am F
We are not alone, we will watch over them from here C G

Tomorrow is promise to no one Dm F C
But beneath the stars, we will race the dawn Am C G
Hearts know no time, nor color or nor fear Dm C G
It carries on, we carry on, we race the dawn Am G C

And so it was as seasons passed the full and new moon D C G D
Found two pairs of lovers together in the evening gloom D C D
Two kings remembering their youth D C
Two young ones unafraid G D
Only the kings knowing the price D C
For love that they might pay D

Until that fateful morning Am F
when their reverie broke at the sound F C G
Of hoofbeats and barking dogs Am F upon the road from town C G

Their darkest fear was on its way Am F
Desmond looked to the east and said C G
Go rally your people, my love Am F
And bring them to the village C G

Tomorrow is promise to no one Dm F C
But beneath the stars, we will race the dawn Am C G
Hearts know no time, nor color or nor fear Dm C G
It carries on, we carry on, we race the dawn Am G C

Hope Eyrie (Leslie Fish)

Worlds grow old and suns grow cold Am C Em
And death we never can doubt Am G C Em
Time's cold wind, wailing down the past C G Am G
Reminds us that all flesh is grass Am Em Am
And history's lamps blow out Am G Am

But the Eagle has landed C G
tell your children when Em Am G
Time won't drive us down to dust again C G Em Am

Cycles turn while the far stars burn Am C Em
And people and planets age Am G C Em
Life's crown passes to younger lands C G Am G
Time sweeps dust of hope from his hands Am Em Am
And turns another page Am G Am

But the Eagle has landed C G
tell your children when Em Am G
Time won't drive us down to dust again C G Em Am

But we who feel the weight of the wheel Am C G Em
When winter falls over our world Am G C Em
Can hope for tomorrow and raise our eyes C G Am G
To a silver moon in the open skies Am Em Am
And a single flag unfurled Am G Am

But the Eagle has landed C G
tell your children when Em Am G
Time won't drive us down to dust again C G Em Am

We know well what Life can tell Am C Em
If you would not perish, then grow Am G C Em
And today our fragile flesh and steel C G Am G
Have laid their hands on a vaster wheel Am Em Am
With all of the stars to know Am G Am

That the Eagle has landed C G
tell your children when Em Am G
Time won't drive us down to dust again C G Em Am

From all who tried out of history's tide Am C G Em
Salute for the team that won Am G C Em
And the old Earth smiles at her children's reach C G Am G
The wave that carried us up the beach Am Em Am
To reach for the shining sun Am G Am

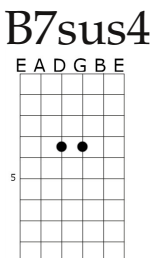

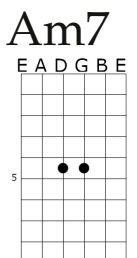

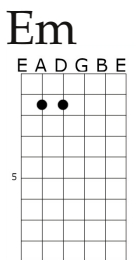

For the Eagle has landed C G

Hot McGonagall

Deep in London's beating heart Em
Lies a wall Am7 B7sus4
A locked door it be Em
If you know the call Am7 B7sus4
For if the wall steps aside Em
Be not afraid of what you see Am7 B7sus4
Because the wizard world had opened up Em
As has the Gryphons Dream Am7 B7sus4 Em Am7 B7sus4

You'll find all shapes and sizes Am7
If you go into the dream B7sus4 Em
But a lady there Am7
Makes the ocean's roar seem tame B7sus4
You better know what you're after Em
If you catch her eye Am7 B7sus4
Cause this hot mama Am7 B7sus4 (stop)
Is just a cat in disguise Em Am7 B7sus4

Leanin on the bar Em
Clad in green Am7 B7sus4
With the scent of smoke Em
And dark, sweet dreams Am7 B7sus4
Step aside fool Em
She's too much woman for you Am7 B7sus4
She's too much witch for anyone Em
Who's too afraid to choose Am7 B7sus4
For her path is lined Em with rosemary, bittersweet and blood Am7 B7sus4
She'll teach you a thing or two Em
About a witch's forked tongue Am7 B7sus4 Em Am7 B7sus4

If you go into the dream B7sus4 Em
But a lady there Am7
Makes the ocean's roar seem tame B7sus4
You better know what you're after Em
If you catch her eye Am7 B7sus4
Cause this hot mama Am7 B7sus4 (stop)
Is just a cat in disguise Em Am7 B7sus4

With a voice as smooth Am7 as a single malt B7sus4 Em
She purrs, 'you don't belong here' Am7
And you take the floor Am7 B7sus4
She burns you down Em brings your spirit to the brink Am7 B7sus4
Then moves your feet into a swing Am7
That only the deepest kiss defeats Am7 B7sus4 Em
Well, aren't you sweet.... Em Am7 B7sus4

The morning finds you Em
Alone and intact Am7 B7sus4
You look for days but Em never find your way back Am7 B7sus4
Because the lady's had her fun Em
But she has dragons yet to slay Am7 B7sus4
But you know that you'll never Em
Forget her face Am7 B7sus4 (straight to chorus)

Better hold on tight Em Am7 B7sus4
Cause she's just a cat in disguise Em Am7 B7sus4

Horizon

My desert home deserted me Em
Replaced with trees so green Em
Until the sun grew cold C
Stark amid the great white winds D
They cracked beneath the snow Em

I needed something stronger, Em
And so I sought the waters of Em
The North C
Just in time to have my world D
Volleyed back and forth Em

I'd sought the hearts of others Am
But their eyes were far too cold Em
And on their wind lay madness songs D
That I could find alone Em
The horizon is a kindness only travelers can know Am Em
And I would be the one to call it home C D Em

The revels brought you to me Em
Colors, sweet cacophony Em
Of laughter in this those eyes D
I thought I dreamed of long ago Em

You sat amid the silence Em
As my battlements wound down Em
And you caught all the pieces C before they hit the ground D

I'd sought the hearts of others Am
But their eyes were far too cold Em
And on their wind lay madness songs D
That I could find alone Em
The horizon is a kindness only travelers can know Am Em
And I would be the one to call it home C D Em

Mountain trains and fire blaze Em
Beloved faces, laughter, pain Em
Storms unchained C
The years roll on like starlight D
That the sun cannot assuage Em

Looking back at footsteps Em
Paired with mine but not my own Em
I understand the lesson C
I had missed for far too long D

I'd sought the hearts of others Am
But their eyes were far too cold Em
Only in yours did I see songs D
That I could not find alone Em
The horizon is a kindness only travelers can know Am Em
Will you ever be the one to call it home? C D Em
Will you ever be the one to call me home? C D Em
For I know you are the one that I call home C D Em
My home....

If I Were The Rain

If I were the rain, if I were the rain
Would I be able to reconnect the pieces of your broken heart
The way the rain connects the earth and sky?

If I were the rain, if I were the rain
Would you catch me every time I fell down
Catch me like a raindrop in your hand

If I were a star, if I were a star
I'd fall into your dreams and light your way
The way a star is company to the moon

If I were a star, if I were a star
Would you come to visit me in the night
Would you remember me when the clouds block you from my sight

If I were a tree, if I were a tree
Would I reach deep enough to touch you when you're gone
Across the land, across the sea, and far beyond

If I were a tree, if I were a tree,
Would you catch my leaves upon the winds in colors of red and brown
Bits of me to take and call your own

This is a pretty simple riff.

Mayor Of Callen

The people of this land require guidance
Otherwise who knows what they would think
The creatures of the wood
It doesn't matter bad or good
They'd take over with their magic before I blink

Chorus

I am the keeper and the savior Am Em
I am the law, I am the way C G
And I am what you face Am Em
If you go astray C G

And vermin know that if you dare Am Em
to set foot within my view C G
that I will gladly set my hounds on you C D

Some call it magic but it's power, before them I will not cower
This town will remain under my control
Power's all a game
And I'll make it very plain
The side of magic will have the losing score

Chorus

I am the keeper and the savior Am Em
I am the law, I am the way C G
And I am what you face Am Em
If you go astray C G

And vermin know that if you dare Am Em
to set foot within my view C G

Bridge:

What I want is very simple
I want to see the forest burn
I only want the best for my people
This is the only way they'll learn

As for me and those in MY village
I only want what we deserve
That magic will never win
And my legacy will endure!

To the power of their magic We'll lose children, and it's tragic
More important is the high ground we'll have lost
Our young ones know no other way
Into the darkness they could stray
I'll burn that forest down no matter what the cost

Repeated in the background:
I will set my hounds on you
I will set my hounds on you
I will set my hounds on you
I will set my hounds on you

Over the repeat:
I'll keep you from the beast within
Keep you free from magic's sin
I'll keep you from the beast within
Keep you free from magic's sin

The Mermaid's Scar

There are tales of ocean creatures all sailors come to fear Em Am
How they rise from coral darkness Am
Whenever ships draw near Em
If you sail in Mermaid waters take care and bring your best Em Am
And hold fast to your soul for mermaids will take the rest Am Em

Some say the cliffs are red with the blood of sailors bold Em Am
Some say the reef will grind a ship Am
From its crow's nest to its hold Em
Faces fine as faeries they bewitch a sailor's mind Em Am
They feast upon the flesh of man leaving only bones behind Am Em

Few things can chill a sailors heart D
Like a red sky at morning Em
But there are other fearsome things D
That come with little warning Am
A ship without a name Em D
Brings misfortune like a tide Am Em
Such that even a red sky at sunset Em Am
Comes with no delight D

The Captain stayed on watch the moon cast no light Em Am something moved in the water against the current's might Am Em
In moments he beheld a face to make a painter blush Em Am
She asked why the ship has no name Am she'd never seen one such Em

Said the captain, she's a fine ship by any name at all Em Am
Said the mermaid, then our supper Am
Will be nameless when it falls Em
The captain called All Hands On Deck Em
As the deck pitched and hull did creak Am
The mermaids shrieked like demons Am
The sails burst open to catch the breeze Em

Like a red sky at morning Em

Out Of The Light

Repeats

End on A

In the light of the full moon you came to me
Showed me all your world was, and all I could be A Foundling child, embraced by a Fae
But you never told me, "Say goodbye to the day."
I'd never see the sun that day
Never seen the sun since that day

You took up my hand, took me out of the light
And together we wandered the ever twilight
But your world was never mine, we knew this day would come
It was always we two, now I'm down to one Gonna see the sun today. I wanna see the sun today

It's autumn leaves on fire, stretched wide 'cross the sky
But as I watch the twilight end, I can feel your good-bye
I look to the wind, will I see you again?
But the wind doesn't answer, will it ever again?
But I saw the sun today, yes I saw the sun today

You defied your own people to take me in
And for seven long years we remained in your glen Seven more years, a wandering dream
From dragon to ocean, to our house by the stream
Your sword would lead us, my staff just behind
And years passed like stardust in the endless night
I was daughter and sister, partner and kin
You were father and brother, teacher and friend

I awake every morn to the sun on my face
And I still hear your laughter far away from that place
And I wonder if you think of me in the soft summer rain
And I wonder if you'd want me if I came home again
Cause you're worth the sun, any day
And I'm coming home to stay

Out On Keeper's Hill

I led the herd into the pen as I do every night D/E
Then I wandered out to Keeper's Hill C G
And found a curious sight D A girl with midnight hair and tail, carrying a bundle white C G D
A small lost lamb, held in her hand C
She released without a bite G D

Since I was in my cradle my mother always warned me Am C G
Of the children lost to faeries in Callenwood Am C G
I didn't think much of it until that fateful dusk Am C
When a girl with a wolf tail earned my trust for good Am C D

The people of the village would say I didn't know I fell C G D
The forest folk are crafty and now I'm under their spell Em C G
But if this is her magic, her rune it will not fail Am C D
They'll never understand what I see in a girl with a tail Em Am C D

Her raven hair in starlight catches shards of silver blue D D/E
Her eyes are deep as emeralds and shine like summer dew D D/E
She hung her necklace on the fence C
Reached out and took my hand G D
She said the charm would protect the flock C
From any of her clan G D

The more I see her wooded world I see it's much the same Am C G
As mine of sun and sheep and human men Am C G
And every night she joins me Am
On my watch beneath the starlight C G
The more I wish she didn't have to leave at dawn again Am C D

The people of the village would say I didn't know I fell C G D
The forest folk are crafty and now I'm under their spell Em C G
But if this is her magic her rune, it will not fail Am C D
They'll never understand what I see in a girl with a tail Em Am C D

The only silver she can touch is moonlight Em Am
My staff of oak she says is from this wood Em Am
She keeps me safe, I keep her from the eyes of sunlight C G
I'll keep her secrets, and more if I could C G D

Her skin is soft as roses her nerves are made of steel D D/E
She works a quarter staff with skill D
That brings my breath to yield D/E
I think I must be dreaming, I thought she can't be real C G D
No words I'd ever heard could touch C
The way she makes me feel G D

The more I see her wooded world I see it's not so different Am C G
Than mine of sun and sheep and human men Am C G
And I wonder why our people Am
Have fought for all these years C G
Until she kissed my lips and my world turned on its end Am C D

The people of the village would say I didn't know I fell C G D
The forest folk are crafty and now I'm under their spell Em C G
But if this is her magic her rune, it will not fail Am C D
They'll never understand what I see in a girl with a tail Em Am C D

Fruit pulled from trees as I was pulled below Em C D

You see, I outgrew the expectations Em D
Of a world that only sees a fragile flower Em D
Though I cannot forsake my name C D
I will light the harvest flame G Em
Sometimes the darkest love is sweetest of them all Em C D

No mistake could be unmade Em D

So many fear the touch of death C D
Fear the one who walks beside him D Em C D

With all growth there is pain C Em
Harbinger of ice and flame Em C D

I sleep among the living Em D
I walk among the dead D Em
I live for revels of the seeds of red! Em C D

The dead bring the flowers of the mourning Em D
I plant them in my love's dark meadows Em D
There they grow while I am gone C D

For this place, Apollo's touch will never know Em C D

Snow White, Red Road

The queen would have her head

Her courage as dry as the leaves beneath her feet Em
No princes, just seven new friends C D Em

Seven dwarves, seven teachers a glass coffin's just a cage Em

Seven voices refuse to keep her tame Em
A poisoned apple is just another lie (to leave) C D Em

A mirror left alone in empty chambers Em

Solstice

Hand in hand we feed the light in each other

Leap through the fire don't be afraid
Leap through the fire don't be afraid
Open yourself to the light at the break of day

We each seek something in the coming of the dawn
The seed we've planted more than just in the ground
What will we reap from all that we've done
What will we become 'neath the midsummer sun?

Leap through the fire don't be afraid
Leap through the fire don't be afraid
Open yourself to the light at the break of day

Light in our hearts
In our bodies, our spirits
Light that we carry
With us all year

Light in our hearts
In our bodies, our spirits
We light the way
We will never fear

Our planting labors done
The longest day has come
Tonight we have our fun
Here comes the sun!

Leap through the fire don't be afraid
Leap through the fire don't be afraid

Strength In The Fire

The moonlight it was dancing cross the path onto the stones
A light burned warm and calling to a place I did not know
It burned a dozen colors it's soft light held a song
A voice I knew and yet did not "Our love's what makes us strong"

The sharp wind wrapped around me as I huddled against the cold
And listened to this voice that I'd never heard before
The edge of light held teeth against the unknown cold
It held back all I could not see and all I did not know

Burn, children, burn!
Burn, children, burn!
Burn, children, burn!
Never let the light die
Never let the light die

The voice held no time, it held no age, it held no will One voice became a choir across the evening still My mind was thrown across the dark to places voices filled Voices raised in anger confusion and ill will

Though the battles rage around us and be they lost or won
The truth burns within us we are the fire all along
No price is too high to sing our final song
To raise the flag of peace once more our love's what makes us strong

Burn, children, burn!
Burn, children, burn!
Burn, children, burn!
Never let the light die
Never let the light die

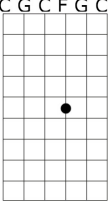

Our love's what makes us strong
Our love's what makes us strong
Our love's what makes us strong
Onward!

The moonlight it was dancing cross the path onto the stones
Our light burns warm and calling to places we do not know
We burn a dozen colors our light still holds our song
Our voices will carry onward "Our love's what makes us strong"

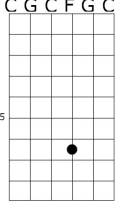

Our love's what makes us strong
Listen
Listen
Listen to the flame

Sun Kissed

The storm had passed just before dawn
The prince of Callen wandered down F Em/A
To see what he could see that morn
And wandered past the edge of town
In the shadow of the apple tree a smaller figure sat Hunched into the roots there, what's wrong?
The young prince asked C Dm

The figures face was silk and fear he scrambled to his feet F Em/A Behind him rose a pair of wings any Falconer would not believe
"What's wrong" the young prince asked again
The figure eyed him wary
"My wings are wet, I cannot fly Dm
And to the wood I do not dare." C

Though your skin is pale as moonlight G Dm Am C
And mine is goldened by the sun
You're so different, but am I the stranger one? G Dm C

"Come into the field and dry out your wings F It won't take long." Em/A
"Are you mad?! I can't be seen! Your people kill my kind."
"You haven't run from me yet, you've barely shied away
I will stand watch over you, I will keep you safe C Dm

My father says a king must serve his people F Em/A
That every voice deserves a chance to be heard
That every life is precious, be it great or be it small I'll watch over, you have my royal word Dm C

Though your skin is pale as moonlight G Dm Am C
And mine is goldened by the sun
Though they may fear,
I'll never let you come to any harm G Dm C

The prince led the way and helped to spread F
His new friends' feathers wide Em/A
Unsure but gentle as he could be then stood guard on the hillside
Minutes passed to an hour as the morning sun rose high
And wings once damp and heavy C
Grew light and strong and dry Dm

At last the time had come F
And the prince reached out once more Em/A
My name is Desmond, I am prince of Callen Keep will I see you again?
The figure smiled, my name is Kalibreck, son of the Eagle king
And every full moon at midnight, I come to the apple tree Dm C

Though your skin is pale as moonlight G Dm Am C
And mine is goldened by the sun
If there's another soul in this world
To match yours, I've ne'er met such a one G Dm C

Then next full moon, if I may F
Would you mind some company? Em/A
I mean, would it be an intrusion, if I I joined you by the tree?
Kalibrek took Desmond's hand kissed the back with a sigh
It would be a pleasure and in a single breath took flight Dm C

Tea And Fireflies

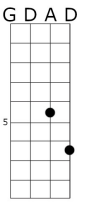

Little Jenna walked through her garden Dsus4
Moonlight in her hair Gmaj7
She sat beneath the lilac Dsus4
Where fireflies filled the air Gmaj7
She felt something tug at her shirt G5 / Dsus4
And she looked down to see Em7
The teeniest, tiniest, littlest fox G5 / Dsus4
In tunic and trousers of green Em7

He said, 'sorry to disturb you Dsus4
But you're sitting on my front door.' Gmaj7
She moved aside, and to her surprise Dsus4
He opened a hole to golden glow Gmaj7
He asked, 'Would you like to join me G5 / Dsus4
For tea and perhaps a song?' Em7
'She said, why yes thank you G5 / Dsus4
But I can't be gone for too long.' Em7

Take care if you take tea D with faerie folk and fireflies G5 / Dsus4
For they are made of magic D that will follow you all your life Em7 D Em7

He leapt up fast as lightning Dsus4
And tapped her on the nose Gmaj7
And she felt kinda funny Dsus4
As the lilac rose around her Gmaj7
She shrank down in seconds G5 / Dsus4
To the size of her new friend
And followed quickly after G5 / Dsus4
When he jumped in his hole again

D

He said, 'my name's Willow Dsus
I've not much company Gmaj7
But I'll gladly share a song Dsus
Since you've joined me for tea Gmaj7
Jenna said, "I cannot play G5 / Dsus4
But I will gladly sing" Em7
Willow smiled and said G5 / Dsus4
"That's the best instrument to bring!" Em7

Chorus

Jenna ran up to the house Dsus4
And to her mother's side Gmaj7
She said, "I'm sorry, mama! Dsus4
I lost track of time!" Gmaj7
Her mum looked down at her and said G5 / Dsus4
"You weren't gone too long." Em7
But listened with a knowing smile G5 / Dsus4
To Jenna's tale of tea and song Em7

Her mother tucked her into bed Dsus4
But before she said goodnight Gmaj7
Jenna asked, 'Mama Dsus4
Could I please have a lullaby?' Gmaj7
Her mom glanced out the window G5 / Dsus4
Then turned back with a sigh Em7
"Take care when you take tea G5 / Dsus4
With faerie folk and fireflies..." Em7

Take care if you take tea with faerie folk and fireflies
For they are made of magic that will follow you all your life
But if they take you as friend you'll never leave their sight
So leave out golden honey to honor faerie light!

The Weaving

Sunlight glistens in the morning
Stretched across the shadowy path
Fragile tethers spinning outward
Strong enough to brave the wind and rain

Chorus:

Weave them together	(We are Children of the moonlight)
Weave them together	(Dancing to the fire)
Weave them together	(We are singers of the rain)
Bring them together	(Together)

Holding on to learn to fly	(Beneath the gaze of sorrow)
Digging in to stand my ground	(Courage fleeting in the night)
Sisters of water dancing	(Dancing on the riverside)
Brothers of fire sing	(sing)

Chorus:

Weave them together	(We are Children of the moonlight)
Weave them together	(Dancing to the fire)
Weave them together	(We are singers of the rain)

Bridge:

Misty hours of dreaming	(dreaming)
Washes over green and gold	(Gold and silver drift away)
Being the dance and the dancer	(Bring the morning onward)
One shining moment to hold	(To hold for all of us)

Tracing the rivers of twilight
The stars swim in black and blue
Rolling light that cannot warm
All the old flowing new

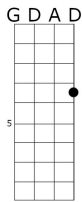

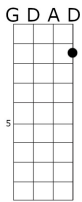

Chorus

Weave them together
Weave them together
Weave them together
Bring them together

Widow's Garden

In the Sleepy Hours of Dawn they come callin'
In the wilds of the wood they come crawlin'
Every tree a road, every flower a star
Into the Widow's garden, they roam

Twass a time they played
With little children's toys
Beneath a weepin' willow
With a lovely little boy
But now the tree is silent
Save just for the wind
But into the widow's garden still they roam

For time takes all things on, be they mountain, sea or storm
But they never are forgotten, no matter what time has worn
For those that live forever have the longest memory
And no matter what time has lost they still see

One day when the boy was young
There came a summer squall
And a single fisherman that night
Never did make it home
His picture fell down from the wall
In a pile of shattered glass
And in that moment she knew he was gone

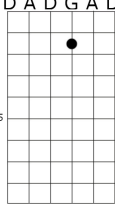

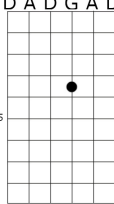

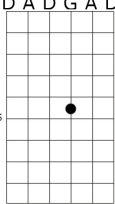

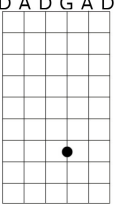

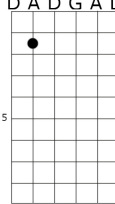

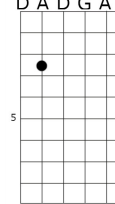

The little boy he ran away
Not believing a single word
He fell into the darkened wood
Where his tiny cry was heard
Next mornin' he awoke
Among the petals soft and blue
Into the widow's garden, he was home

For time takes all things on, be they mountain, sea or storm
 But they never are forgotten, no matter what time has worn
 For those that live forever have the longest memory
 And no matter what time has lost they still see

Though the sea had took her bonnie beau
 And her son had up and grown
 Still the Widow keeps her garden
 Where little blue flowers grow
 And every morn 'tween dusk and dawn
 Upon the creepin' dew
 Into the widow's garden they roam

For time takes all things on, be they mountain, sea or storm
 But they never are forgotten, no matter what time has worn
 For those that live forever have the longest memory
 And no matter what time has lost they still see

Into the widow's garden, they roam....

May the snow fall gently Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2
Upon your shoulders Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2 may the north wind rock you to sleep Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2 Em7
May the sun shine cold Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2
And bright Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2 and may your seedlings gently keep.

For now is the time Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2
Of the Holly King Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2
And all the longest night Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2 Em7
He keeps his vigil Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2
For the dawn Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2
To bring back the sun kings light Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2 Em7

the ash and aspen too C7 G but in their dreams of ever green, D Am

The air is filled Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2

The wine of winter Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2
Let tales of old be sung Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2 Em7
As Frau Hulda Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2

The longest night's begun Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2 Em7 burning down Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2

The dawn climbs to the sky Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2 Em7
The Holly King Dmadd9 Asus4 D7sus2

Within The Snow

The universe is sometimes harsh Am
So much out of control Em
But sometimes the message is so clear Dm
And heavy enough to take a toll G

Caterpillars think that life is over Am
Til they fly to new worlds Em
It's easy to think that winter is forever Dm
Until spring unfurls G

Where only moonlight touches C
Lay the secrets left unknown Am
But their silent truth is held Dm
Within the snow G

The cold can hold us in our tracks Am
But we make our own heat Em
We make our own demons Dm
Our own villains to beat G

We're each the sum of choices Am
Most our own, though some are not Em
We keep all that we choose to Dm
We keep fighting no matter what G

Lay the secrets left unknown Am
But their silent truth is held Dm
Within the snow G

Work hard, play harder E F
Joy is the fiercest flame C
Fan it, let it roar within E F
It doesn't deserve to be be tamed C

We pick up the pieces Am
Of those who came before Em
We learn from their legacy Dm
In their footsteps in the snow G

We are more than our footprints Am
But fill your with laughter Em
So that you can still bring smile Dm
To those who follow after G

Lay the secrets left unknown Am
But their silent truth is held Dm
Within the snow G
